PESA leads and Promotes the science of Wellbeing and Positive Psychology so schools communities can flourish regardless of circumstance.

Save the date!

The only way is up! Functioning to flourishing
Positive Education Schools Association
Inaugural National Conference
Friday 27 and Saturday 28 February, 2015
St Peter’s College - Adelaide
South Australia

PATRON
Martin E P Seligman
Director Positive Psychology Center, University of Pennsylvania
Zellerbach Family Professor of Psychology, University of Pennsylvania

Simon Murray, Chair of the Positive Education Schools Association, announces an outstanding conference featuring internationally renowned scholars and practitioners in wellbeing to be held at St Peters College – Adelaide 27 and 28 February, 2015. Delegates are advised that the first Annual General Meeting of the Association will be held for individual and institutional members of the Association during the conference.

Speakers
Professor Patrick McGorry AO, Professor Lea Waters, Dr Michael Carr-Gregg, Associate Professor Jane Burns, Simon Murray, Jason Ball and Gabrielle Kelly.

Full conference program details and bookings will open mid-December at www.pesa.edu.au or www.stpeters.sa.edu.au. For more information contact Margaret Pullen on +61 8 8404 0436.

About PESA
In 2012 nine Principals and Heads of Schools from across Australia collaborated to establish the not-for-profit Positive Education Schools Association (PESA). The Association’s Vision is to lead and promote the science of wellbeing and positive psychology, enabling all students, schools and communities to flourish. For more information about PESA go to www.pesa.edu.au.