A life time opportunity

Martin Seligman in Perth

One of the most influential contemporary psychologists

HALF DAY SEMINAR

Positive Psychology, Positive Interventions & Positive Education

Cutting edge research, ideas and applications

Tuesday 23 July 2019

You are invited to hear influential psychologist Martin Seligman take you through his own personal journey from helplessness to optimism as he presents his new research The Hope Circuit.

This presentation will inspire and guide you in positive interventions with a focus on positive psychology that can impact your personal and professional lives.

The Hope Circuit goes a step further from his last publication, built from his life's work on optimism and motivation and getting the most out of life.
