Developing a Whole School Wellbeing Progression

Presented by Melanie Spencer, Deputy Principal of Wellbeing, Burgmann Anglican School, ACT

ABOUT

This presentation will guide attendees on how to develop a whole school wellbeing progression that ensures wellbeing is taught, imbedded and measured appropriately across each year level.

Presented by Melanie Spencer, an educator with over 30 years of teaching experience. Melanie is currently Deputy Principal (Wellbeing) at Burgmann Anglican School where she leads the pastoral care and wellbeing practices over two campuses and four sub-schools (including an ELC). In addition to this role, she is a long standing PESA ACT chapter committee member (where she previously held the role as Chair), she is a national assessor for the Australian Institute of Teaching and School Leadership, and is a PhD Candidate at Alphacrucis University College, researching enablers and inhibitors to the integration of Christian Education and Positive Education in faith based schools.
