School of Education

The School of Education at Edith Cowan University (ECU) has a long history of transforming lives through education and producing exceptional educators since 1902. As the number one provider of teaching graduates to public schools in WA, the university offers students a breadth of choice, flexibility and unique opportunities. ECU's teacher education program is ranked in the top 300 in the world and is the top university in Australia for postgraduate overall educational experience. Our strong reputation for producing quality graduate educators is due to ECU's dedication in providing professional experience opportunities through our partnerships with over 1,500 schools and early childhood centres in WA.

Chartwells

Lunch Sponsor

Chartwells, the education division of Compass Group, has over 30 years' experience serving the education market in Australia, working with our clients to create quality, innovative, and effective catering solutions.

Around the country, we have over 90 partnerships in both the Independent school and Tertiary sectors. Our people are passionate about making a real difference in educational environments with our Smart Food program, designed for us by Nutrition Australia, and supported by our Chartwells Dietician. We believe school catering can be innovative and offer real wellbeing solutions, with modern and nutritious menus presented well and changing daily.

Chartwells offers a true partnership approach, with a tailored service model based on quality and value, founded on thinking differently and challenging the traditional catering model. We bring innovation, infrastructure, and extensive operational experience to our partnerships, enhanced by a personalised and focused approach that will not change with growth or time.
